DESCRIPTION

This module aims to provide learners with knowledge, skills and competences related to reception process and applicable EU law.

It covers the phases of reception process, rights and obligations of asylum applicants and authorities, and key stakeholders. It also addresses provision of the practical support for applicants in reception context, including logistical and financial assistance, information provision, and principles of information-sharing.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of this module, the learner will be able to:

Knowledge

1. Describe the phases of the reception process and corresponding rights and obligations of applicants and reception authorities according to the Reception Conditions Directive.

2. Identify the appropriate responses in organizing practical, financial and logistical support, and appointments for the applicant.

Skills

3. Identify the phases of the reception process and corresponding rights and obligations of applicants and reception authorities according to the Reception Conditions Directive.

4. Provide the appropriate responses in organizing practical, financial and logistical support, and appointments for the applicant.

Competences

5. Carry out tasks related to identifying the phases of the reception process and corresponding rights and obligations of applicants and reception authorities according to the Reception

Conditions Directive.

6. Carry out tasks related to providing the appropriate responses in organizing practical, financial and logistical support, and appointments for the applicant.

DELIVERY METHOD

This module is delivered entirely online, through self-paced learning.

ASSESSMENT STRATEGY

The assessment strategy is based on one assessment conducted at the end of the module.

The assessment is composed of multiple-choice questions and is designed to assess learners' knowledge on reception process and appropriate responses in organizing practical support for applicants in relation to the learning outcomes of the module.
