Learning outcomes & description

DESCRIPTION

This module aims to provide learners with the theoretical and practical knowledge needed to prepare and write a decision related to end of protection cases.

It covers the conditions that lead to the end of protection as laid down in the Qualification Directive, with a focus on the relevant legal provisions and procedural safeguards pertaining to the end of protection.

It prepares learners to apply this knowledge in the context of dealing with end of protection interviews and decision-making.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of this module, the learner will be able to:

Knowledge

1. Identify grounds for withdrawing international protection through individual assessments.

Skills

2. Apply the relevant legal provisions and procedures relating to the end of protection.

DELIVERY METHOD

This module is delivered through a blended learning approach, combining online studies and face-to-face sessions (either onsite or through live webinars).

The online component focuses on learning activities that assess progress toward the learning outcomes, and face-to-face/webinar sessions focus on complex elements that require discussion.
