Learning outcomes & description

DESCRIPTION

This module aims to provide learners with the knowledge, skills and competences needed to prepare and coordinate activities related to the pre-departure phase in the context of resettlement and humanitarian admission.

It covers the key tasks involved in the preparation, implementation and completion of the pre-departure process, with a focus on organizing and delivering orientation sessions, managing expectations, and coordinating essential practical arrangements.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of this module, the learner will be able to:

Knowledge

1. Outline activities to plan and prepare for departure and for pre-departure orientation sessions.

Skills

2. Propose activities relevant to finalize the pre-departure phase with key stakeholders.

Competences

3. Carry out activities relevant to the implementation of information provision and pre-departure orientation sessions.

DELIVERY METHOD

This module is delivered through a blended learning approach, combining online studies and face-to-face sessions.

The online component focuses on animated content, reading materials, and multiple-choice questions to help learners assess their progress and face-to-face session focuses on complex topics through case analysis, discussions, and role-playing.

ASSESSMENT STRATEGY

The assessment strategy is based on one assessment divided in two parts, which will take place partially online (a written report) and partially during the face-to-face session (a role play).

The assessment is based on the problem-based learning methodology and is designed to assess all learning outcomes of the module.
