EASO hosted NSTF mini European Assembly Plenary Session

EASO hosted the NSTF mini European Assembly Plenary Session on 7 March 2014. The Mini European Assembly is an educational simulation exercise, open to teams of students from post-secondary and tertiary level institutions, where they discuss various issues related to European Affairs through the political perspective of the European country they represent both at Committee and Plenary Sessions. About 60 students take part during each edition of the Assembly.

More information on the Assembly can be found http://www.nstfmalta.eu/index.php/areas/nstf-mini-european-assembly" target="_blank">here.
